

UTILITY BOX ART

Nineteen local artists and community members were selected by City Council and the Hurst Community Arts and Historic Landmark Preservation Committee to transform Hurst utility boxes into art! We received so many fantastic submissions that the project was approved to expand from six utility boxes to nineteen. The winning artists, ranging in age from 9 to 89, chose to showcase the theme "Community built on connection" by highlighting Hurst parks, history, facilities, and much more. The vinyl wraps of each of the nineteen designs were recently installed on the utility boxes across Hurst. You'll be able to find out more information on the artists and their work on our website in the coming weeks.

We're thrilled to have art showcased across our city in this unique way!

CITIZEN SURVEY

Each year, the City of Hurst engages in our Strategic Planning Process to determine priorities for the upcoming budget. This process allows the city council to evaluate community needs and assess their impact on the city's budget while also helping the city determine which services to provide and at what level they are offered. One critical factor that affects the strategic planning process is our annual citizen survey.

We will open up our survey for responses during the month of February. You'll be able to access it during that time by visiting hursttx.gov/citizensurvey.

MIGRATORY BIRDS

Hurst did not have an egret rookery in 2022. This success is directly attributed to residents trimming and thinning tree canopies and consistently harassing sentry birds. However, we need the same efforts in 2023! To learn how to help, please visit hursttx.gov/migratorybirds.
